BAD BRAINS TRANSFORMATION

KEIN HASS DA

... HATE BAND PROMOTION!

Some stories you tell nobody will ever believe. But as a musician you can say the silliest nonsense without the danger being sent to the funnyfarm. So let's give it a try!

The truth is: We are not from this world. Our earth is not as backward as this one - on the other hand, Punk has never happened there, and Alice Cooper died in 1973.

But it's this Alice Cooper of whom Karl has been a really big fan since early adolescence. That's why he always wanted to sing in an Alice Cooper tribute band. Since Karl is an old friend of us (and besides, the Cooper songs are easy to play), we had been on the road as THE NICE GUYS since 2004.

But unfortunately not very successfully. For unknown reasons we never caught our audience.

But then one day ... hm, it's a little difficult to tell ... well, strange super-human beings sent us on the hunt for "positive energies".

No, it wasn't God, and we weren't drunk oder stoned, either. We were just handed a "Hirntrafo", and this machine should do all the miracles we couldn't do ourselves.

With the help of this thing we came to YOUR world, and then met the

OLLI UD-I ROTTER KARL

now-empty band account!

BAD BRAINS in the years of 1979, 82, und 89, to be exact. This was also our first encounter with PUNK - we were really impressed!

The impact was so great, that we had the idea to play the BAD BRAINS' songs in OUR world ... claiming WE were the BAD BRAINS!!

When we fell into the hands of a ruthless manager and understood that our use of the Hirntrafo had sucked away all the energy from the real BAD BRAINS, we destroyed the hellish You don't understand a word? Just like we. As we've told you before, some stories nobody will ever believe ...

Perhaps it would be a better idea to would listen to our CD HIRNTRAFÖ - and then read the book, too. Maybe the coin will drop - and, what's more, a little something will flow into our

Anyway, just don't come asking us about things happened before 2007. No questions about EMILS, the MILITANT MOTHERS, the APPD or the Chaos Days. We really don't know much about all this ... is was the work of our doppelgangers (probably now stumbling around back on OUR earth!).

Only Rotter und Ud-I were lucky: They could "continue" to play in their bands STONE COLD BLACK und PULT unconsapicuously. Nobody gave a thought about their "blackouts" here and there. Nothing new ...

Finally, many thanks to the BAD BRAINS, which are the only ones who know the truth so also this story, too. It's still a joy to play your songs, especially in our German versions. Your "Positive Mental Attitude" is always with us.

Of course, we can't use the BAD BRAINS's name here - that's why we call it KEIN HASS DA. Not only a name but also a means of self-hypnosis.

Yeah ... writing a 'band info' can get you into a pretty hateful mood. Does anyone in their right mind really like to ruin their day with stupid promo trash?

On The screen Auf dem schirm may I say this car

made just for you buy' m' discover nature puresie Natur pur so tasty
straight to you brain!
one pizza more
alone at home
a fat pig
with a hurting leg I feel so weak
game over?
how can I escape
from the bomb
in my brain?
am I where I always wanted to be?
I only live in my tv
Do you like entertainment 24-7?

stay cool
don't be so hard-headed open the chest
of melancholy
does anger flow through you soon?
yes, it makes sense now so cry it out loud
don't live
a second hand life!
how tasty it may seem never again blind
how can you escape
in your brain?
are you where you always wanted to be?
when will i see you
in my tv

Bragger's Executioner Blender Henker

the machinery got something better to do standing in the dirt to the lips no, we will not help you to get out no, we don't feel any regret we just want to see you go nails into the coffin I enjoy giving my o.k.
no saviours in sight
throw the bragger

Message Botschaft

ready ready ready for an earthquake
ready for an earthquake stop complaining, man
just start now
chose freedom or slavery

wake up just fantasy in everyone today's the day of your ride
into your soul - YEAH!

be the message
look ahead
sing the message

lies lies lies,
lies and fakes ruling
and hate

want to oppress you
how long will the madness last?

oh you're in a good mood

quiet but with full strength
Besing' die Botschaft

lies lies lies,

live the message
'cause you are the message dance the message the rhythm doesn't hurt you

Don't Need It
Brauch' ich nicht

I don't need shares
don't have a driving licence will never get a pension don't want to be so nicely dressed

I don't want to change with anyone
Just want to inspire myself and by thinking
that I would regret
you will gain no fun

don't need no custom engine I fly by my own strength and if you want to stop me I don't care for you

my magic impulse running well with positive energy

Conquering The World Die Welt erobern

nobody dares to overcome the wall
it's so dangerous mines everywhere
we don't care
we are joining the mob led by a nazi team
yes
conquering the world!
we're screaming
filled with joy
the people are singing on their way to a slaughter party in a mountain of corpses
they evaporate
in a nazi test

only megalomania
the hands dirty
no blank cheques never
never!
so listen to me
telling you now about the fire glowing within you
conquering the world!

Just Being Against It Einfach dagegen

what a celebration for the plague if your own house is burning and the mob has fun while you're dying
let's be tough on the market
'cause nobody cares and tv lets everybody know about everything so loud our rejection with every stone tattooed into our hearts that we are against it i'll get under the wheels
'cause nobody can hear me they don't understand my pleading and my password is wrong against all power saying simply no against all power being united where is a smiling YES ... ? no triumphs, no moaning just being against it
and i know i can't do it just being against it, sure so many people, so many people
and i know i won't do it

deep in my mind
i'm just confused
just a little broken up i see through it all the mud, trash, gossip and the bums' schnapps though all their hateful talking i see harmony
under the mistrust
under all the scorn
which way are you going?
i know the solution
will flight into your heart so soon oh my love, which way are you going?
and now, for all of you:
i've got an ipod Nano and a real big Mac
i have an HD TV and digital cable i've been for a week on the Bahamas just for my harmony just for my agony
i'm lazy, but never mind what do you wanna do?

original song BAD BRAINS:
„I Against I“

Go With Me Geh' mit mir

in the search for guarantees (think about it!)
yes you're right
no one can escape
pure life
only breathes free but for tomorrow
we guarantee vividness when your faith is lost in tears
go with me
uniformed brutality (stop it!)
attacks my integrity but who takes my hand when i am paranoid who satisfies my thirst and my fear, too

in the void, then,
a sound becomes manifest join my way
now and then the voice silences in the storm i miss her so much so vehemently we're digging into the ground to defeat the doubt if you want to chase away the vampire
fill your heart with intelligence on your ride
it will be so helpful

Mixing Genes Gene mischen

mixing genes
not only screaming on my mind but the transmission of the vision succeeds if the rhythm feels the rhythm quite hard all the genes on the way are so distinctive

mixing genes
forget your fear
walk through the wall
a poor country's behind you
all your hope
crushed in the mincer
melancholy
it never flew higher

mixing genes
time is passing way too magically when the melt of your senses is flowing so pure and clear drums telling about a landing on mars

the magic continues so far, yet close hands like balsam wonderful
never the light
seemed to shy
and so we're mixing ourselves ever again

go through the wall
you see, there's a new country in the light of hope a garden blossoms
mystery
it will hear us

House Of Terror Haus der schrecken

here in the house of terror I want to feel joyful today oh yes, freedom is waving, my child ...
but who knows my Dausenau
oh here
inside of me it is still working in my dreams
about to burn my heart now
I would like to laugh inside the Hulk is still my friend he gave my life a meaning and all the children screaming they cannot grow cannot forget

never
never!
where is mummy, daddy?
give me an answer
it is my right, yeah, yeah!

original song BAD BRAINS:

I Am Not Alone

Ich bin nicht allein

life without any meaning (no) but fighting and smashing (no)
just tormenting and hunting

oh never, no

i don't ever want to be like this
knoweth, never, no

and no sense at all in all this greedy accumulation no, no sense at all in mountains of killing weapons

oh never, no

don't need an army

oh never, no

oh what a surprise

I am not alone

they want us to stay quiet but i am not alone

(they want) to destroy our lives

I am not alone

even if they try to cover it up

never mind

oh it's not all the same

facing the wind

never mind

knoweth, never, no

in light and dark

I am not alone

wherever it will lead me

I am not alone

really never mind

original song BAD BRAINS:

Me? No!

Ich? Nein!

I never dared the perversity I am the man who can do everything right a real capacity
I do what has to be done with a sense of reason and proportion
I am superior to everyone I don't enjoy anything

Yeah! Ohoh

I never dared dreaming so cool I'm standing lonely at the top and enjoy this feeling all girls just want me I punish all idiots
I rule with the whip
I am a star and god

you'll end in the dirt!
you cry-baby!

when I close my eyes I feel the mud
and in the end I know everything about me

I am no leader never have been don't let them seduce you you'll end in a war

No! Ohoh

Ohohoh...

original song BAD BRAINS: „I“

still There Immer noch da you are dissolving

more and more like a ghost
you're walking on the water you say
i'm far behind the topics of today but your face is becoming paler and paler with fear

but the funny thing
about you is
yes, you think
you're a winner
about me is

doesn't matter as ever before what you are doing and whether you're relaxing on the way to victory you fell asleep
and you got chained so securely

i'm still alive!

I'M STILL THERE!
I'M STILL THERE!

No Hate There Kein Hass da

swore revenge
dying suffering a fist clenched in anger but will not grip the stone if you think their complaining never ends but there will be justice in the swamp of wrong paths and because
i'm looking forward
to the next day
and because
i feel like you
that's why there's no hate
some dreadful murder is growing in pain and harm when hate and revenge rule my answer is very simple what's the use of your hate? your death melody

where is the warmth to cure the hate
and because
and because
there is a way to be alive without hate and revenge freeing
renewing and firing away

Jail Planet Knastplanet

a jail planet built in thousands of years heroin, alcohol, glue eat your brain
I can't trust them you, you're twisted
my jail is a planet
we, we got ourselves
we know ways
singing our songs
tonight
it's sure forget it you'll never understand I got myself
can never lose myself
in ruins your jail planet even if you keep us in prison it is freedom that unites us even if you think we're suffering so much there's clarity

that shines in us
ohoh, the invaders
standing at the gates
you are lost
never mind
you can believe me no wall will hold us good bye ...

Don't Bother Me/serving Machine

Lass mich in Ruh'/Dien' Maschin'

you look at me
in a really bad mood
don't bother me
you want to beat the shit out of me
yeah, you are wasted, it's the 10th beer
are you feeling well?
let me tell you
whatever you'll do

you, you're staring at me babbling in my ears "hey you" telling me "you are not one of us" you're doing big but you're not able to stand tight you think you're a real fighter

a long time ago
i've had enough
well, i just run away and suddenly i was free - YEAH!

(serving machine)
in the middle, awakening how's the youth gone?

(serving machine)
i'm an old man now almost dead unified with computer technology

the cold terror
there is no way to run away
it's enough!
What's up? - do you pay the price?
walking on your knees to escape death living with machines

(serving machine)
always serving (Dien' Maschin')
sing machine
bring machine everything's just a fake i know nowt'ing's real!

no light nowhere
when i freeze cold and empty
in the grip of technology

oh, serving machine no, don't let it end so bad please ...

Death No More Nie mehr tot

do I feel your shaking you secret thunderstorm don't think you are small to move the whole world to feed the hungry
all comes from the seed speed of light
in agony
death no more
escape from the dark
end the time of terror enough with all the hiding wake up your breath believe me, you can scream don't listen to the snakes to noise and pomposity nothing is what it seems to be at first sight!
in monotony

death no more
if you seek for immortality
your life
can be dangerous or tender surprising
and consuming you if you discover yourself new not hiding your face not dying in silence
this day
is your day in misery
grows dawn
and there will be

Never What They Want
Nie was sie wollen

forever blond
just bask in your fame everybody knows your face what's left to be done?
you don't realize
that I don't follow
your orders

we will never do what they want
never do what serves them
oh no

driven by greed addicted to get
to make us stay
it will not work without tricks

but whatever you do it will always be a dirty game
do you believe we'll ever bow before you?

we will never do
never do

your fame is over now that much is obvious
your orders

never do

Just A simple Thing Nur 'ne Kleinigkeit

just a simple thing - go!
everytime
I feel so sick of it they say "it will not work!" so I do it my own way it's a ride on my power finally, it becomes clear
i am not alone
if I want to do it
i'll do it fast
just a simple thing beaming makes feel good and makes the blaze flow through my blood
so let's start
so loud not quietly
feel the lust in bravery!

there's a savior at home saving you before the great flood
feel the lust in bravery!
I feel like coming home and you'll be the next I hold it in my hands it makes me feel good help is not far away
it's the blaze
that keeps me alive and it burns in YOU!

Longing For Time Peile Zeit

I could escape to refresh me
wanted to mix up the whole world and I felt so close as never before the magic of fantasy
back into reality
love was driven away
by banality
looking for time
looking for money
looking for sex
looking for pain in all that yelling can you feel the pain?
just a pale image
we gotta go home!
in the nowhere
i will not become happy without a home anyway

just hanging around I can only lose because fear
can never push me in the dusk of morning we're ready we just say NO because we have enough enough of the fear
enough of the need enough of the hatred
we gotta go!
genius together
genius from anger
genius with warmth
from the blaze!

Return To Eden Rückkehr nach Eden

return to eden
work hardnfast
burn in the race for money die as tired hero run inside
the engine of the world no eden
take a bath in your sweat just ignoring the dirt you'll never get rid of it what makes us so lame so cowardly
from deep anger flowing up hope more and more turns into a rebellion

suffered under kickings a dream has ripened when will it become real and puts an end to all the suffering yes, this one
an alternative to endless crazy wars a world we will love and we will now fly to where the nightmare would be over

His Eyes sein Blick

his eyes made energy flow I cannot forget
never
some time ago
I was ready and the black man
touched me what slept so long began as a game
and became never too much
I will never forget his eyes
oh, how much I loved them
the pure power of the sun
I couldn't imagine how much
in dark and light I could see it
no, he never made a stop my brother seemed carried away so often galaxies away like gone crazy in anger will he ever return quiet and calm from the search for the boss

I really miss him so much
once again
my heart touched but I couldn't recognize him when will it be that he stays
and screams again
yes, screams again
I will never forget his eyes

set The sails setz' die segel you don't adore me anymore because i can fly without alcohol

is that fair?
you don't like me laughing in the middle of a battle so it's clear
all the anger
will tear us apart
set the sails
on the rollercoaster
break the rules
hey, we're going ahead!
tell me - ahead!

you thought
i could not stand it but i am still not full just discovered and so soon the suffering goes away beautiful the ever chaging nature of time nothing's for eternity!

hey, we're going ahead!

i can feel it deep inside me i will not stay if you don't know where you are traveling will i dare
to try something new?
just to reject it
at last, laughing

nearness without torture

tingling electricity a kaleidoscope in the light no borders anymore

oh, can there be something takes all the children home she made a decision warmth without torture he made a decision

the magma industry the energy
deep inside
in the glowing
the fire lurks
please, forgive my screaming I can't explain
dream volcano
your, your, your,
I'd really like to touch your soul lava sticking on my fingern it's magic it's burning
you just know a single part of me will you be close?

I will sleep until dawn in the dream volcano
deep inside
dream volcano
I'm bubbling in the stew of all my desires so hot
powerlessness and anger are burning I've got to get out of here only fantastic ideas on my mind born again covered in my little bed so warm your hand
so warm my bed
in the dream volcano

Loser's Tales Versagerlatein

some day
you really want to do it some day you'll really quit your job, yeah
a thousand times
the same pious lies
something like this
the same littel self-fraud
who can look into your soul how can one breathe
with a faked self-confidence
there is just talking
and fog everywhere
a loser's tale

you really want to continue to build your moon ship

what do you want
whar are you doing
what's thinking your mind what makes you go so slow

i can't wait any longer our ways now separate

i'm flying to the moon
'cause there's no other way

What Remains (Of The shine)

Was bleibt (vom schein) louder and louder lambs whining

in the desert
hammers hammering
in the ruins
what remains
silent grief
where there were glimmer alle the big-bellied
now hungry, thin and nervous
the dawn of mind
will not make you stupid opens just your heart don't whine and don't hold fast
silent grief
'cause a whirlwind
in the river of time

all glory and power
blows to dust
so surely
don't believe in winners
the runners
tomorrow i'll see you again life blooms every day no, no
nothing is los there is no chain contract that remains
so surely
the runners

Waken The Fitness

Weck' die Fitness

never!
never expire
never!
never follow the mass
you!
don't want to be so sick away!
away with the pudding
let's take to fitness yeah, your're digging hip hop and others doin' body building they want to do it big
I want an answer
but, from rave music
to nazi-rock,
in hardcore, too,
sugar's killing the scene
waken the fitness
don't trust chemistry
trust only poetry how I stood between them so stupid
too many corpses

hold on!
you're not fit just sick look!
you can fly on your own
and others doin'
body building
but, from rave music
waken the fitness
poison alarm
just leave the ghost train
waken the fitness
wake the fitness

Like Rain In The sea

Wie Regen im Meer

there flows together
what belongs together
over the water
there's a wind blowing
but the rain
doesn't know hatred
the child of the sea so don't be a shark anymore the anger gives way to pure trust
the orphan
a prodigy
when you're walking this way just believe in the force you have inside of you and you won't fail don't pass without a look and never your courage will die it lives inside of you there's something living inside of you
a prodigy

just have a look at the sea the waves in the wind never become tired
never dispirited always trusting neither does their song of hope ever end
nor do they fear that they will lose their power because it never fades away like in a war it will fight for the children of the water howsoever welcome
never rejected
never in a hailstorm never in a thunderstorm never ever suffered
in the heat of the day
in the dark of night whatever happens to you the force will come!
it's magical
and not a dream
you prodigy...

How Far Can A Punk Go
Wie weit darf ein Punk gehen?

I was a noble knight, finally they only left me to be biter
they tried to read from my lips so I had to be a faker
a pig
as the master of chaos I had to be nazi or prince and now I have to pay the price I'm on my way to execution It was my fault (how nice) drunken without beer always a punch too much answering questions nobody asked what a crazy war with no chance of a victory it stole my time just to build a huge monument in a storm of idiocy hold me tight!
how far may a punk go?
